Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On May 22, 2024, ToughBuilt Industries, Inc. (the "Company") received a delinquency notification letter (the "Notice") from the Listing Qualifications Department of The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC ("Nasdaq") notifying the Company that because the Company has not yet filed its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2024 (the "Form 10-Q") and because the Company remains delinquent in filing its Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023 (the "Form 10-K"), the Company is not in compliance with Nasdaq Listing Rule 5250(c)(1) (the "Rule"), which requires listed companies to timely file all periodic financial reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC").

The Notice has no immediate effect on the listing of the Company's shares on Nasdaq. However, if the Company fails to timely regain compliance with the Rule, the Company's common stock will be subject to delisting from Nasdaq.

As previously disclosed in the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on April 25, 2024, the Company received a separate delinquency notification (the "Initial Notice") from Nasdaq advising the Company that due to the failure to timely file its Form 10-K, the Company is not in compliance with the Rule. In the Initial Notice and reiterated by Nasdaq in the May 22, 2024 Notice, the Company has 60 days, or until June 8, 2024, to submit a plan to Nasdaq to regain compliance with respect to the late Form 10-K and Form 10-Q. If Nasdaq accepts the Company's plan, then Nasdaq may grant the Company up to 180 calendar days from the prescribed due date of its Form 10-K, or until October 14, 2024, to file the late Form 10-K and Form 10-Q to regain compliance with the Rule. If Nasdaq does not accept the Company's plan, Nasdaq will issue a determination indicating that the Company is subject to delisting. If that occurs, the Company may request a hearing before a Hearing Panel to review the determination. There can be no assurance, however, that Nasdaq will accept the Company's plan or grant an exception period, that any hearing would be successful, or that the Company will be able to regain compliance within the deadline or any exception period that may be granted or maintain compliance with the other continued listing requirements set forth in the Nasdaq Listing Rules.
